WHEREAS Pauline Lucier started her long-time career with the City of Nashua on February 23, 1971. She began working for City Clerk Lionel Guilbert in the City Clerk's office on voter registration, vehicle registrations, numerous licenses, and death certificates. Pauline soon became responsible for the complete processing of death certificates when all of them needed to be typed prior to being sent to the State; and

WHEREAS in 1984, under the direction of the City Tax Collector, Irving Gallant, Pauline became the Supervisor of Vehicle Registrations and has been the supervisor for over 23 years. She has also worked under the leadership of two other tax collectors, Paul Martel and David Fredette; and

WHEREAS Pauline has worked under seven mayors. They are Dennis Sullivan, Maurice Arel, Thomas J. Leonard, James Donchess, Rob Wagner, Donald Davidson, and Bernard Streeter; and

WHEREAS during these many years, Pauline raised two daughters: Diane who is married to David Duras; and Carol who is married to Robert Newell. Pauline also has four grandchildren: Kayla, Cameron, Stephanie and Brandon; and

WHEREAS in 1989, Nashua became the first community to offer mail-in service for renewal registrations, a procedure that is used statewide today. Pauline was a major contributor towards that effort. More recently, Nashua became the second community to allow one-check payments for registrations, saving the city and the state significant dollars, and for which Pauline was instrumental in achieving.

NOW THEREFORE, over the years, Pauline has been responsible for the collections of over $300 million dollars and the processing of nearly two and a half million registrations. Although these numbers are impressive, they do not begin to represent Pauline's true value and her significant contributions over the many years she has worked for the City of Nashua. We thank Pauline for all her years of dedication, efforts, spirit, and most importantly, her service to our customers in the City of Nashua.
